

At A GENERAL
COURT MARTIAL
Held at the INNS in DUBLIN.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to the Court that great violences are daily Committed by Officers and Souldiers upon several of His Majesties Loyal Subjects within this Realm. It is therefore hereby ordered and declared, That all person or persons who are in any wise wronged or oppressed, do make speedy application to the Officer Commanding in Chief the Regiment, Troop or Company where such wrong shall be done, who is hereby strictly Charged and Commanded immediately to Redress and Comfort the Agrieved. And in case upon application as aforesaid to such Officer, the Officer refuse or neglect to cause speedy Justice to be done, then application is to be made to the Officer Commanding in Chief the Body there; and if not relieved by him, then to this Court, setting forth the wrong done, and making out by sufficient proof, that application hath been made as before is directed, and the Court will take care that speedy Justice be done, and proceed against the Officer or Officers that have neglected or refused to do the same, to the utmost Rigour of the Martial Law.

Given at the Inns in Dublin this 14th day of August 1689. And in the Fifth Year of His Majesties Reign.

By Command of the Court Martial General.

J. A. NIHELL.

DUBLIN, Printed by Andrew Crook and Samuel Hellsham Assigns of Benjamin Took, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty: And are to be Sold at His Majesties Printing-House on Ormond-Key, and the Colledge-Arms in Castle-street, 1689.

At A GENERAL

COURT MARTIAL

Held at the INNS in DUBLIN.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to the Court that great violence are daily Committed by Officers and Soldiers upon several of His Majesty's Loyal Subjects within this Realm. It is therefore hereby ordered and declared, That all persons who are in any wise wronged or oppressed, do make speedy application to the Officer Commanding in Chief the Regiment, Troop or Company where such wrong shall be done, who is hereby strictly Charged and Commanded immediately to Redress and Comfort the Agrieved. And in case upon application as aforesaid to such Officer, the Officer refuse or neglect to cause speedy Justice to be done, then application is to be made to the Officer Commanding in Chief the Body there; and if not relieved by him, then to this Court, setting forth the wrong done, and making out by sufficient proof, that application hath been made as before is directed, and the Court will take care that speedy Justice be done, and proceed against the Officer or Officers that have neglected or refused to do the same to the utmost Rigour of the Martial Law.

Given at the Inns in Dublin this 1st day of August 1689. And in the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

By Command of the Court Martial General.

J. NICHOLL.

DUBLIN, Printed by Andrew Crook and Samuel Holford Assigns of Benjamin Tooe, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty: And are to be sold at His Majesty's Printing-House on Ormond-Key, and the College-Arms in Castle-Street, 1689.